LAVAN LEGAL APPOINTMENTS:

Tamara Heng
Partner
Property

Tamara Heng has experience in a wide range of property and general commercial transactions. She acts for several leading property developers, high net worth individuals and the government in the acquisition and disposal of assets and land development. Tamara has been involved in a number of significant projects in Western Australia. Tamara also has experience in commercial dispute resolution and has successfully negotiated outcomes in complex contractual and property disputes.

Greg Nairn
Partner
Construction and Infrastructure

Greg Nairn's experience covers both litigious and non-litigious aspects of contracting in the Australian construction and resources sectors. Greg regularly advises principals, contractors and subcontractors on contract disputes, claims management and resolution, security of payment applications and full-scale litigation/arbitration. At the front-end, Greg provides contract review and drafting services and advises project financiers on construction contract risks.
